MACKIN COUNCIL

Conducting Contest to Determine the Most Popular Conductor.

Man is a social animal and association is to him as necessary as light and air and water are to the flowers and plants. Recognizing this fact, we are reminded of an association in the West End of our city which is deserving of the warmest encouragement from our people. We allude to Mackin Council, Y. M. I.

This organization is composed of a number of energetic Catholic gentlemen who are banded together in an effort to supply to the young men a place where they can congregate and find rational amusement and congenial moral companionship. Mackin Council, like all others, has had its ups and downs, but the material of which it is composed does not recognize any such word as "fail."

The members recently bought a commodious and elegant home at 530 Twenty-sixth street, where their friends will always find extended the "warm hand."

They are now conducting a novel contest which is developing a great deal of enthusiasm. A recent discussion as to who was the most popular railroad conductor running out of Louisville prompted these gentlemen to offer a solid sterling silver lantern to the conductor who would poll the greatest number of votes between May 17 and September 8, the contest to be closed at the lawn fete to be given by Mackin on the evenings of September 5 and 6 on the club house grounds. The judges will be five passenger or freight agents of roads running out of the city, no two of whom shall represent the same company.

The lantern is being made by one of the best firms in the business and will be a beauty. It will be placed on exhibition in some prominent window as soon as finished. The winner, whoever he be, may well be proud of it and of himself, and here's to Mackin Council and the contest. May the best man win.

YOU GET THREE FOR ONE.

In another column will be found the advertisement of the United States Mutual Investment Company, represented in this city by L. A. M. Greif. The company is incorporated, and is a Kentucky institution with headquarters at Lexington. Its business is conducted on the same plan as that of the life insurance companies, the profits being disbursed among coupon holders. The plan is worthy of consideration, and those wishing a good paying investment should see Mr. Greif at 445 East Market street.

RECENT DEATHS.

We regret to chronicle that the dread typhoid fever has claimed another victim in Mrs. John Flaherty, whose death occurred last Sunday evening at the family residence, 420 Twenty-first street. The deceased was only in her twenty-fifth year and the announcement came as a great shock to her many friends. Before her marriage she was Miss Ida Hull. Sincere sympathy is felt for the bereaved husband. Her funeral was largely attended at St. Patrick's church Tuesday morning, and a large number of mourners followed the remains to their last resting place.

Thos. Craddock, a well-known butcher of the East End, died at the City Hospital Tuesday evening, after a lingering illness. He had resided in this city for many years and was popular among his wide circle of friends. The deceased, who was a brother of Edward Craddock, the ex-policeman, came to this country from County Galway, Ireland, when but two years old. His funeral took place from the residence, 545 East Jefferson street, and the remains were followed to their last resting place by many of his friends.

Samuel Green, the veteran printer and old soldier, who was here on a visit from the Dayton Home, died last Sunday afternoon at the City Hospital, after a brief illness. He is survived by his wife and two daughters and one son, all grown. His remains were buried in Cave Hill cemetery.

GRAND OUT-OF-TOWN EXCURSION to the Indiana Gas Belt via "Big Four" route. Special train leaves Seventh-street Union depot at 7 o'clock a. m. Sunday, July 8. Returning train arrives in Louisville at 11:40 p. m. Extremely low round-trip rates as follows: Rushville, $1; Knightstown, $1; Anderson, $1.25; Muncie, $1.25; Alexandria, $1.25. Tickets on sale at city ticket office, 218 Fourth avenue, and at Union depot, S. J. Gates, General Agent.

Peter F. Regan, organizer of the United Irish League, has been elected Chairman of the Ballinrobe District Council.

INSURANCE.

Albert Reutlinger Represents Several of the Strongest American Companies.

This is the season of the year when every property owner and housekeeper should see that they are protected by fire insurance. They are many agencies in this city and foreign companies represented, but few have as high a standing as Albert Reutlinger, who is the district manager for the Continental Insurance Company of New York, the Orient Insurance Company of Hartford and the American Insurance Company of Boston, three of the best companies on earth.

Workingmen and readers of the Kentucky Irish American should give this matter their immediate attention. Any desired information can be obtained from Tim Naughton, the well-known and popular Hibernian, who is associated with Mr. Reutlinger.

This agency has the reputation for settling all claims promptly, and therefore is recommended as one of the most reliable doing business in Louisville. We take pleasure in introducing Mr. Reutlinger to our friends. His headquarters are located on the northwest corner of First and Market streets.

HUGH O'CONNOR

May be Nominated for Congress in the Third Indiana District.

The Republicans of the Third Indiana district have called a convention in New Albany July 19 to nominate a candidate for Congress in Third district to make the race against Judge Zenor.

Hugh T. O'Connor, of Corydon, who announced himself six months ago, seems to have the best chance of being nominated. Mr. O'Connor runs the stone quarries in Harrison county and operates the railroad which connects Corydon with the Louisville and St. Louis Air Line railroad. His uncle, a prominent contractor, built the Henderson bridge. Mr. O'Connor is a young man of thirty-five years, highly educated and with ample means to make an active canvass. He has many friends in Louisville.

If the Republicans of the Third district want to show their good sense they will nominate this gallant young Irish-American.
